

GERMAN STANDARD COURSE LOWER INTERMEDIATE

klub d – Deutsch online

COURSE PROGRAMME

WHAT WILL YOU LEARN?

In this topic-based, interactive Lower Intermediate course you will build on your basic grammar skills and increase your vocabulary to improve the ability to express yourself more fluently in familiar, everyday situations.

Week 1: Talking about past events and experiences (revision)

The simple past and the past perfect

Week 2: Describing processes (part I)

The passive

Week 3: Describing processes (part II)

The passive and modal verbs

Week 4: Describing and comparing (part I)

Comparatives and superlatives as adjectives

Week 5: Describing and comparing (part II)

The genitive

Week 6: Stating preferences/dislikes and discussing alternatives

Expressions with the infinitive with zu and entweder ... oder

Week 7: Speaking hypothetically

The subjunctive

Week 8: Justifying your opinion and arguing (part I)

Alternatives to weil

Week 9: Justifying your opinion and arguing (part II)

Alternatives to obwohl

Week 10: Expressing purpose

Final clauses, using damit and um ... zu

Week 11: Talking about pre-past events

The pluperfect

Week 12: Making projections

The future tense

This scheme of work may change according to learner's progress and needs.

WHO IS THE COURSE FOR?

This course is for learners who want to learn in a small group to maximise interaction and enhance fluency and have attended an advanced beginners course and have reached the level A2.2 of the Common European Framework for Languages (CEFR). Level A2.2 means you can communicate in German in everyday situations using simple expressions and elementary vocabulary. This course enables you to reach level B1.1 of the Common European Framework for Languages (CEFR). This means that you can understand and comment on a variety of topics.

COURSE FORMAT & DELIVERY

Fee: £280 (all course materials are included in the fee)

Format: 12 weeks: 12 x 90 minutes live sessions on Zoom

Dates: Wednesday, 21 Sep to Wednesday, 7 Dec 2022 2.30pm-4pm

Group size: maximum 8 students

Course Language: German (& English)

COURSE TUTOR

Britta, a German lecturer at Imperial College London, is a native German speaker. She graduated from Hildesheim University with a MA in Cultural Education. Britta then went on to teach German at institutions of Higher Education in London, Sheffield and Leeds before and became a writer and editor of MFL material for the Open University and Scholastic. Britta has over 20 years experience in teaching, designing and producing German educational content and is passionate about introducing real life into German language learning.

Contact: britta.klubd@outlook.com